Reading Well for mental health: overview of the titles

Introductions to therapies and approaches

Cognitive Behavioural Therapy (CBT)

Cognitive Behavioural Therapy: Your Toolkit to Modify Mood, Overcome Obstructions and Improve Your Life by Elaine Iljon Foreman, Clair Pollard

ISBN: 9781848319509 Format: Paperback Publication date: June 2016 Extent: 240 pages Other format: ebook 9781848319516

Change can often seem like an impossible task, but this practical book will help you put it into perspective. With guidance from two experts, you'll recognise the behaviours and thoughts that hold you back, and will develop skills to think more positively, act more calmly and feel better about yourself. Using the same tools employed by CBT practitioners, this book is full of activities and experiments to explore and challenge, stories and exercises to provide perspective, and a clear framework to encourage and guide you. The authors' friendly and supportive approach will help you learn to manage recurrences of negative thinking and behaviours, and to develop strong coping strategies. CBT incorporates the latest therapies and research, including ACT and mindfulness, and explicitly addresses problem areas like insomnia and depression.

Mindfulness

Support for carers

The Boy with the Topknot: A Memoir of Love, Secrets and Lies in Wolverhampton* by Sathnam Sanghera

ISBN: 9780141028590 Format: Paperback Publication date: April 2009 Extent: 336 pages Other format: ebook 9780670923090, audiobook 9781510094550, DVD

For Sathnam Sanghera, growing up in Wolverhampton in the eighties was a confusing business. His family's strange and often difficult behaviour was challenged at the age of twenty-four, when he made a discovery that changed everything he ever thought he knew about them. Equipped with breathtaking courage and a glorious sense of humour, he embarks on a journey into their extraordinary past - from his father's harsh life in rural Punjab to the steps of the Wolverhampton Tourist Office - trying to make sense of a life lived among secrets.

It explores the sensitive subject of mental illness with courage and honesty, and by being authentic and specific to Sathnam and his wonderful family, it tells a universal truth about the human heart.

Living with a Black Dog* by Matthew Johnstone and Ainsley Johnstone

ISBN: 9781845297435 Format: Paperback Publication date: January 2009 Extent: 80 pages Other format: ebook 9781780339047

This second book from Matthew Johnstone, author of I Had a Black Dog, is an equally touching and beautifully illustrated book, written for those who care for those living with depression - friends, family members, colleagues, and even therapists. Matthew and his wife Ainsley offer a moving, inspirational and often humorous portrait of life with depression - not only for those experiencing it themselves, but for those close to them. Living with a Black Dog speaks directly to the carer and offers practical and sometimes tongue-in-cheek tips on helping the person with depression, such as 'Socks have little do with mental health. If people could just 'snap out of it' they would.' Based on their own experiences, Matthew and his wife Ainsley treat the subject of depression sympathetically, hopefully and, most importantly, humorously.
