

Side-splitting Stories for Children - May 2019

Middle grade books

This month we have created a booklist of our favourite side-splitting stories that will have children laughing loudly! There are plenty of chapters that'll make them chortle and sentences that will have you in stitches:

Fing! by David Walliams and Tony Ross, HarperCollins Children's, 978-0008342579

Dave Pigeon 4 – Royal Coo by Swapna Haddow and Sheena Dempsey, Faber and Faber Children's, 978-0571336982

Marge in Charge by Isla Fisher and Eglantine Ceulemans, Piccadilly Press, 978-1848125339

Charlie Changes into a Chicken, by Sam Copeland and Sarah Horne, Puffin, 978-0241346211

The Grunts in Trouble by Philip Ardagh and Axel Scheffler, Nosy Crow, 978-0857632722

Moone Boy: The Blunder Years by Chris O'Dowd and Nick Vincent Murphy, Macmillan Children's Books, 978-1447270959

The Funny Life of Teachers by James Campbell and Rob Jones by Bloomsbury Children's, 978-1408898246

Who Let the Gods Out? by Maz Evans, Chicken House, 978-1910655412

The Nothing to See Here by Steven Butler and Steven Lenton, Simon & Schuster Children's, 978-1471163838

Harry Hill's Whopping Great Joke Book by Harry Hill, Faber and Faber Children's, 978-0571341207

Planet Omar - Accidental Trouble Magnet by Zanib Mian, Hodder Children's Books, 978-1444951226

Middle School: Born to Rock by James Patterson, Chris Tebbetts and Neil Swaab, Young Arrow, 978-0316349529

Mutant Zombies Cursed My School Trip by Matt Brown and Paco Sordo, Usborne Publishing, 978-1474960236

The Parent Agency by David Baddiel and Jim Field, HarperCollins Children's, 978-0007554485

The Secret Diary of Adrian Mole Aged 13  $\frac{3}{4}$  by Sue Townsend, Puffin, 978-0141315980

Get involved

You can share your book recommendations around the theme of hilarious books for children with us @readingagency