

Icebreaker Questions

You've read your book and come together with your group to discuss it, but where do you begin? Sometimes it can be difficult to know what to talk about first, so these handy questions will help to break the ice and get the conversation flowing.

1. Did you enjoy the book? Would you recommend it to a friend? Who and why?
2. How did it make you feel?
3. Why do you think the author chose the title? What other title do you think the book could have?
4. What are the main themes of the book?
5. Did anything surprise you?
6. If there were any plot twists, did you see them coming?
7. If you met the author, what would you ask them?
8. Did you like the writing style?
9. Is the story believable or realistic?
10. Did you like the characters? Are there any characters you can identify with?
11. Which character would you most like to meet in real life?
12. How important is the time period or setting?
13. Would you like to visit the locations in the book?
14. Which character would you most like to meet?
15. What was your favourite scene?
16. Does it end how you expected?
17. What do you think happens after the end of the book?
18. Does it remind you of any other books?

